hydrobiologia volume 209, contents

No. 1

W. C. Guest & R. W. Drenner: Relationship between feeding of blueback herring and the zooplankton community of a Texas reservoir 1

P. F. Kasigwa & C. G. Mahika: The diet of the edible cockle Anadara antiquata L. (Bivalvia, Arcidae) in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, during the northeast monsoons 7

W. L. Nicholas, J. A. Elek, A. C. Stewart & T. G. Marples: The nematode fauna of a temperate Australian mangrove mudflat; its population density, diversity and distribution 13

G. C. Garman & J. R. Moring: Initial effects of deforestation on physical characteristics of a boreal river 29

Y. I. Sorokin & T. I. Mamaeva: Role of planktonic bacteria in productivity and cycling of organic matter in the Eastern Pacific Ocean 39

P. Biró, S. E. Sadek & G. Paulovits: The food of bream (Abramis brama L.) in two basins of Lake Balaton of different trophic status 51

J. M. Jackson & A. J. Mclachlan: Rain-pools on peat moorland as island habitats for midge larvae 59

G. L. Cromar & D. D. Williams: Centrifugal flotation as an aid to separating invertebrates from detritus in benthic samples 67

S. U. Panampunnayil & M. Viswakumar: Spelaeomysis cochinensis, a new mysid (Crustacea: Mysidacea) from a prawn culture field in Cochin, India 71

F. Johansson: Foraging modes in an assemblage of odonate larvae – effects of prey and interference 79

No. 2

J. E. Cooper, J. Early & A. J. Holding: Mineralization of dissolved organic phosphorus from a shallow eutrophic lake 89

J. Green & S. Mengestou: Specific diversity and community structure of Rotifera in a salinity series of Ethiopian inland waters 95

A. Mariazzi, V. Conzonno, R. Echenique & H. Labollita: Physical and chemical characters, phytoplankton and primary production of Ezequiel Ramos Mexía Reservoir (Argentina) 107

C. Teixeira & S. A. Gaeta: Contribution of picoplankton to primary production in estuarine, coastal and equatorial waters of Brazil 117

S. D. Gribbin & D. J. Thompson: Emergence of the damselfly Pyrrhosoma nymphula (Sulzer) (Zygoptera: Coenagrionidae) from two adjacent ponds in northern England 123

P. W. G. Daldorph & J. D. Thomas: Snail cadavers as sources of short-chain carboxylic acids to scavenging freshwater invertebrates 133

D. S. Brown: Freshwater snails of São Tomé, with special reference to Bulinus forskalii (Ehrenberg), host of Schistosoma intercalatum 141

R. L. Fuller & J. B. Bucher: A portable chamber for measuring algal primary production in streams 155

Y. Bouvet, K. Soewardi & E. Pattee: The discrimination of roach Rutilus rutilus (Linnaeus, 1758) populations in different parts of a river system. An investigation using biochemical markers 161

W. Koste: Anuraeopsis miraclei, a new planktonic rotifer species in karstic lakes of Spain 169

No. 3

E. Lahti & P. Muje: Egg quality and female condition in vendace (Coregonus albula L.) before and during spawning 175

Zhenkang Xu & C. W. Burns: Effects of the epizoic ciliate, Epistylis daphniae, on growth, reproduction and mortality of Boeckella triarticulata (Thomson) (Copepoda: Calanoida) 183

J. Garnier & D. Benest: Planktonic bacterial biomass and seasonal pattern of the heterotrophic uptake and respiration of glucose and amino acids in the shallow sandpit lake of Créteil (Paris Suburb, France) 191

S. Mengestou, J. Green & C. H. Fernando: Species composition, distribution and seasonal dynamics of Rotifera in a Rift Valley lake in Ethiopia (Lake Awasa) 203

K. V. Slack, L. J. Tilley & S. S. Kennelly: Mesh-size effects on drift sample composition as determined with a triple net sampler 215

P. J. S. Martin & J. D. Edman: Comparison of water ingestion between black flies (Simuliidae) and a mosquito (Aedes aegypti; Culicidae) using radiolabelled glucose 227

H. S. Sehgal & E. B. Welch: A case of unusually high oxygen demand in a eutrophic lake 235

P. Bodin: Perturbations in the reproduction cycle of some harpacticoid copepod species further to the Amoco Cadiz oil spill 245

B. D. Parashar & K. M. Rao: Direct and delayed effects of low temperature on the freshwater snail Indoplanorbis exustus (Deshayes, 1934), intermediate host of schistosomiasis 259
